

SPACEDOLL

you've got something in your eyes it haunts my dreams at night when i'm trying to sleep it is you that I see and you've got something held within it runs right through my skin and falls to a place that I wanna take you and if you wanna run and hide boy then you can hide but I can tell what your thinking I know you rather go for a ride I don't want you for your innocence I just wanna feel you sin and after all i don't want known rock and roll I just wanna feel control and be your pretty little spacedoll you got my brain over drive and I just wanna feel you inside catch my breath before I die you toxic poison fills the sky surrounding me till i cannot breath and if you don't want nothing to do with me just tell me babe I see behind your pretty face I know you've seen into space woah spacedoll

I don't want you for your innocence want you for your innocence I just wanna feel your sin
